GENERAL DESCRIPTION

NOCCA Statewide Ambassador Coordinator, to act as and support students across the state of Louisiana through arts education and enrichment, especially those of greatest need and/or who have faced loss of education accessibility because of COVID.

The ideal candidate would be well versed in regional, state and local arts organizations, including those who are for profit, non-profit as well as educational resources and independent arts and management identities. This candidate should have a strong connection to arts education and be able to travel throughout the state.

Successful applicants will have dedication to a continuing commitment of innovation, integration and adaptability of ever-evolving technologies into arts education and curriculum delivery. Commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion and a demonstrated ability to work with a diverse body of statewide students and statewide contacts.

Also successful applicants will have imagination, vision, and deep-rooted passion for spanning traditional boundaries among all arts disciplines. As mentors to students, applicants must model integrity, fairness, flexibility, and high ethical standards. An enthusiasm for working in a dynamic, fast-paced environment that is characterized by continuous growth is critical.

This position has been created to support students across the state to help make up for lost arts access during COVID and to expose them to high quality art instruction and training that are not necessarily available in all areas of the state.

Be respectful of the 50 rich years of NOCCA history and be able to communicate the mission, values and opportunities that NOCCA is able to provide with a wide range of audiences.
